ADJOURNMENT OF THE GENERAL MEETING.

EVERY Inhabitant of the Town or Country, that can attend the ſaid ADJOURNMENT, is deſired to do ſo on WEDNESDAY NEXT, the 16th Inſtant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Mr. PIKE's ASSEMBLY ROOM in CHURCH-STREET, to conſider a Report that was laid before the laſt MEETING.

LONDON.

His MAJESTY's Moſt Gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, on Thurſday the 13th Day of January, 1774.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE unuſual Length of laſt Seſſion of Parliament made me deſirous of giving you as long a Receſs as the Public Service would admit. I have, therefore, been glad to find myſelf under no Neceſſity of calling you from your reſpective Counties at an earlier Seaſon; and I doubt not but you are met together, in the beſt Diſpoſition, for applying yourſelves to the Diſpatch of Public Buſineſs.

You will, I am perſuaded, agree with me in regretting, that the Peace, ſo long expected and very deſirable, is not yet effected between Ruſſia and the Porte; but it is with real Satisfaction I can repeat, that other Foreign Powers continue ſtill to have the ſame pacific Diſpoſitions with myſelf. I can have no other Wiſh than to ſee the general Tranquility reſtored: For the Eſtabliſhment and ſubſequent Preſervation of which, no Endeavours of mine, conſiſtent with the Honour of my Crown and the Intereſts of my People, ſhall ever be wanting.

In this State of Foreign Affairs, you will have full Leiſure to attend to the Improvement of our internal and domeſtic Situation; and to the Proſecution of Meaſures more immediately reſpecting the Preſervation and Advancement of the Revenue and Commerce of the Kingdom. Among the Objects which, in this View, will come under your Conſideration is, the State of the Gold Coin; which I muſt recommend to you in a more particular Manner, as well on Account of it's very high Importance, as of the peculiar Advantages which the preſent Time affords, for executing with Succeſs ſuch Meaſures as you may find it expedient to adopt with Reſpect to this great National Concern.

The Degree of Dimunition which that Coin actually ſuffered and the very rapid Progreſs which the Miſchief was daily making, were truly alarming. It is with much Satisfaction that I have ſeen the Evil, in a great Meaſure, checked by the Regulations made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament. I truſt, however, that you will not ſtop here, nor think that you have diſcharged your Duty, either to your Country or your Fellow Subjects, without uſing your beſt Endeavours for putting the Gold Coin upon ſuch a Footing, as may not only compleatly remove the preſent Grievance, but render the Credit and Commerce of the Kingdom ſufficiently ſecure from being expoſed to the like Danger.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Eſtimates for the current Year to be laid before you; and rely on your Readineſs to grant me ſuch Supplies as ſhall be found requiſite in the preſent Situation of Affairs.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Experience I have had of your paſt Conduct leaves me no Room to doubt, either of your Zeal or Prudence, in your Endeavours to promote the Welfare of your Country. You will not ſuffer any Parts of the Public Service to eſcape your Attention; but, various and extenſive as thoſe are, you will be careful to ſelect, for your immediate Deliberation, ſuch of them as ſhall appear to be moſt important: And you can propoſe no Meaſures, that will ſerve either to ſecure or advance the Happineſs and Proſperity of my People, in which you may not always find on my moſt hearty Concurrence.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 14.

A WRIT is iſſued for electing a new Member of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, for the Pariſh of St. Michael, Charles-Town, in the Room of Henry Laurens, Eſq; which is made returnable the 21ſt of the ſame Month.

Laſt Monday a Number of German Emigrants, arrived here, in the Ship Sally and Betſy, Capt. Stanfell.—Thurſday, a Number of poor Iriſh alſo arrived here, by Way of Georgia.—And on Saturday, in the Brigantine Fiſher and Friendſhip, from Scotland, a Number of young Gentlemen, ſome Ladies, and Children.

On Thurſday laſt put in here, in Diſtreſs, the Brigantine Hopewell, William Corbin, Maſter, from Georgia bound for Cowes, laden with Rice.

Capt. Walkes, of the Ship Charming Nelly, from London, who arrived here laſt Tueſday, on the 16th paſt, in Lat. 24, 25 N. Long. 45 W. ſpoke with a Sloop belonging to Mr. Oliver Bowen, of Savannah in Georgia, called the Hannah, William Barbut, Maſter, then 4 Weeks from Sombrera, bound for the Cape de Verd's, who had been four Days without a Rudder, whom he ſupplied with a ſpare Main-Yard, (to fix to ſteer by) a Coil of Two-Inch and half Cordage, and a broad Axe.

From St. Vincent's we are informed, that the Black Charaibs had entirely evacuated thoſe Parts of that Iſland, from which it was intended they ſhould be expelled; fixed themſelves upon the Spot allotted them; and were perfectly quiet. And that Orders had lately arrived from France, to carry the Edicts againſt Smuggling in the Weſt Indies, into the ſtricteſt Execution, which had been done ſo effectually, that the Dutch at St. Euſtatius, were, by that Means, deprived of the moſt valuable Branch of their Commerce: That at Guadaloupe, every Maſter of a Merchant-man was appointed a Cuſtom-Houſe Officer; and as it was their Intereſt to prevent an illicit Trade, they were ſo vigilant, that a Smuggler dared not appear on that Coaſt.

The Cruizer Sloop of War, commanded by Capt. Howe, arrived the 20th paſt, at Cape-Fear, being appointed to that Station.

Capt. Beſnard, in the Ship Carolina, juſt arrived from London, in 7 Weeks, has brought out as Paſſengers from England, amongſt them, Mr. Aaron Loocock, Merchant, Mrs. Loocock, Mr. William Wilſon, of St. Auguſtine, the Rev. Mr. Blackburn, for Bermuda, a Mr. Roſe, &c.——The Day before he left London, Advice was received there of the new Way of making Tea in America with Sea-Water.—Capt. Beſnard very judiciouſly refuſed to bring out what Teas were offered to be ſhipped by him.—He brings an Account of the Death of Mrs. De Lancey, Widow of our late Deputy Poſtmaſter-General.

All the Judges in Boſton have declined receiving the King's Salary, except Peter Oliver, Eſq; who has therefore been voted, by the Houſe of Repreſentatives, an Enemy to the Conſtitution of the Province, &c.

The Ship Betſy, Capt. Lockyer, which ſailed from London 19th of September laſt, with a Cargo of the Eaſt-India Company's Tea, for New-York, was not arrived there the 20th of laſt Month.

The two Thompſons have been pilloried, &c. agreeable to their Sentences; and moſt ſeverely pelted—two more atrocious Villains have not come upon Trial for many Years.

The following is inſerted here by particular Deſire.

To the Freeholders of the County of Wake.

BEING at an election of Burgeſſes for your county, and hearing the converſation of ſeveral of the electors, I could not but reflect that many of them were unacquainted with the nature of the Truſt repoſed in the elected; and as I conceive it to be a truſt of the higheſt nature, and conſequently ſuch a one as the people ought to be acquainted with, permit me to offer a few obſervations on the nature of it, not meaning thereby to reflect on any perſon, for I cannot ſuppoſe that every one hath leiſure or inclination to conſider ſuch a ſubject, although it be of ſuch importance. The Parliament (of which your Repreſentives are members) is the higheſt court in the Government, and hath juriſdiction over all others; for it can eſtabliſh or undo what others do, and, in ſhort, do every thing which is not naturally impoſſible, and what it doth no power on earth can alter or efface. The life, the liberty, and property of the ſubject, as well as what goes beyond the ordinary courſe of the law, are within the power and reach of this extraordinary tribunal; therefore the members appointed to ſo important a truſt, no doubt, ought to be the moſt eminent for their probity, their fortitude, and their knowledge. They are the guardians of the conſtitution, the makers, repealers, and interpreters of the laws, appointed to watch, to check, and to change every dangerous innovation; to propoſe, adopt, and to cheriſh every ſolid and well weighed improvement; bound by nature, by honour, and religion, to tranſmit that conſtitution, and theſe laws, to poſterity, amended, if poſſible. With what propriety then can it be ſaid that it doth not matter who repreſents us, or whether we are repreſented at all, eſpecially at ſo critical a time as this, when it ſeems we want the aid of the legiſlature to ſecure our lives, our liberties, and our properties. The law only give every freeholder a choice, becauſe perſons without property might be ſo abandoned as not to exercise their own will. Let then every freeholder, inſtead of being indifferent, ſtand forth and exerciſe that privilege, ſo eſſential to his liberty.

From the Cape-Fear Mercury, February 23, 1774.

A Portrait of NORTH CAROLINA.

I HAVE been attentive, for ſome time paſt, to the ſyſtem of politics prevailing in North-Carolina: and although of no profeſſion or party, and of courſe no more intereſted in the event of public tranſactions than as a member of the community, yet as an honeſt man, and a friend to my country, I cannot help expreſſing my ſentiments on the preſent very alarming and critical ſituation of affairs. And let me turn my eyes wherever I will, I am ſorry to ſay, I ſee grievances multiplying without end, and this unhappy province likely to be reduced to the moſt anarchial ſtate, and of courſe to experience every calamity incident to ſuch a one. To point out therefore the ſources of ſuch complicated miſery, and throw in a few remedies well adapted to the diſtempered conſtitution we live under, is, I hope, an attempt not in the leaſt invidious, but even neceſſary.

We have two ſources, I think, from whence our miſfortunes flow; the firſt, that the nature of attachments, and the manner in which they ſhould operate here, have never been properly or judiciouſly explained to government at home, whatever efforts may have been made to that purpoſe; and the ſecond, from a ſpirit of intolerance and impatience, but too viſibly appearing in the conduct of the firſt magiſtrate of this province, and his unhappy adviſers, whoever they are.—I am bound to maintain theſe poſitions.—As to the firſt then, is it conceivable that if government had been well informed reſpecting the nature of judicial attachments, it would have required an oath previous to the iſſuing one?—Does not every intelligent man know, that it is a judicial proceſs, and meant principally to attach the effects of debtors who never reſided within this province? whereas an original one has a contrary tendency.—With what propriety then ſhall a creditor ſwear that his debtor has abſconded, when he never was perhaps within three thouſand miles of the ſuppoſed abſconded place? The abſurdity of this is ſo very glaring, that it muſt ſtrike the ſenſe of all mankind; and equally well, nay better would it be to ſuppreſs judicial attachments altogether, than to make them attainable by a compilication of downright folly and nonſenſe.

Again, not a far remove, in point of folly, is the oath propoſed to be taken on original attachments, previous to the awarding of them. Oath it ſeems (by the Governor's ſpeech) muſt be made, that the debtor has abſconded to avoid payment of his debt. A hard oath indeed! and a callous conſcience muſt it be that takes it. To ſwear to a circumſtance, that can only be known to the great ſathomer of all hearts, and explorer of all ſecrets, is monſtrous indeed! Perjury is too high a price for the purchaſe of an attachment, and government can never require, much leſs approve, ſuch terms.

Thus far concerning the oath of attachments, &c. And now let me ſay that their commercial utility has never been wiſely defined, either in reſpect of the benefits we claim from the effects of Britiſh debtors, or from thoſe of our ſiſter colonies. We are told that we ſhall have attachments where the cauſe of action ariſes within the colony, and not elſewhere; a great indulgence truly! Let us therefore examine the advantages accruing thereby: For inſtance, a Wilmington merchant meets a South-Carolina one ten yards ſouthward of the North-Carolina line, there they make a contract for one thouſand pounds. The South-Carolinian fails in point of contract, having effects to the amount of five thouſand pounds in Wilmington, not one penny of which can be touched, becauſe the cauſe of action ORIGINATED in South-Carolina; whereas ſhould the failure lie on the ſide of the North-Carolinian, be the contract made where it will, his effects ſhall be taken. Now can any government on earth wiſh to ſee us ſubjected to ſuch a hardſhip? However friendly the mode of attachment propoſed may be as to Britiſh debtors, ſtill government never could mean to give any one province an injurious diſtinction and preference over another. What has it to do with their reciprocal and mutual remedies, provided the effects of the Engliſh debtors are ſecured in the manner wiſhed for? Will any man living tell me, matters have been either underſtood here, or explained at home? If he ſhall, I will anſwer and ſay, that common ſenſe has forſaken the land, and folly uſurped the ſeat of wiſdom. But for argument ſake, let me ſuppoſe attachments to be really underſtood by, and exceptionable to, government; does it follow, as a natural concluſion, that the Governor ſhall not paſs laws that are UNEXCEPTIONABLE? Surely no. As well may it be ſaid that a man has loſt his REASON, becauſe he makes an improper uſe of it. And this leads me to my ſecond poſition, that from a ſpirit of INTOLERANCE and IMPATIENCE, in the perſons before named, all our miſfortunes flow.

This is but too apparent, from a county court law not having paſſed, the juriſdiction of which would have been ſo limited, that it could not poſſibly have operated to the diſfavour of any Britiſh merchant, nor could any attachment take effect under that law until a SUPERIOR COURT ONE ſhould have been paſſed. Let me therefore now hold out a true picture of the ſtate of this province, owing to the want of ſuch a law, and ſome others, I have occaſion to mention. From the want of ſuch a law then, I ſay, the eſtates of thouſands of poor orphans (the tender ſubjects of care with every humane legiſlature) are in the moſt precarious condition, and likely to be injured from the villainy of many guardians, executors, and adminiſtrators, who may plunder, rob, and deſpoil their eſtates, or march off with parts of them, and ſometimes the whole in the face of the ſun, with impunity, there being no court to call them to an account. And again ſuch as mean honeſtly have no place to reſort to make up their accounts, and before they have, may be ſnatched away by the hand of death, whereby their tranſactions will, in many inſtances, carry the appearance of obſcurity or confuſion, from the want of that explication, which teſtators, guardians, &c. might have given, although the repreſentatives cannot. Add to this the terrible evils which the commercial part of mankind ſuffer, from the want of a juriſdiction of twenty pounds; which would cover many of their credit and families. The want of the orphan law adds real CALAMITY to CALAMITY. The poor innocents of that name are forced to endure every ſpecies of cruelty and mal-treatment in their perſons, without poſſibility of remedy. Cold, hunger, and nakedneſs, may be their lot, but there is no tribunal to reſort to for relief. Should their guardian be a Nero, he muſt be borne with, there is no chooſing another; ſhould he be a Jonathan Wild, he may thieve on, for any thing that can ſtop him. To ſum up the miſery of all, a poor infant cannot chooſe a friend; a villain when choſen cannot be removed, nor an honeſt man comply with the duties of his truſt. Nor is the want of the veſtry law one of the leaſt evils we ſuſtain. Even in the moſt uncivilized ſtates, and where the moſt ſavage barbariſm prevails, the poor recommend themſelves to mercy. It is found every where but in North Carolina; but here hundreds of helpleſs children, and aged families, may ſtarve from the want of church wardens to provide for them. It is obſervable, amongſt other things, how little his Majeſty's intentions have been attended to by his Governor, reſpecting the late unhappy inſurgents. He recommends an act of pardon and oblivion. It was adopted; and no ſooner did the current of mercy flow towards theſe poor creatures, than the flood gates of power were ſhut down, and a buſineſs, wherein life was concerned abruptly put an end to. A charming furtherance of his Majeſty's gracious intentions.—Nor am I a little ſurprized that our GOVERNOR, having formerly acted in a military department, ſhould think a militia law of no importance. His predeceſſor found it to be ſo; and ſhould an inſurrection of the ſame kind happen, or one of a worſe nature, what internal ſtrength have we to quell it? Or who can legally call forth the aſſiſtance of the people, without ſuch a law? And laſtly, let me aſk why a law for defraying the creditors of the publick, as well as many others, calculated for the local convenience, and domeſtick police of the people, have been totally pretermitted? All theſe laws, with many others I could mention, have no more to do with attachment clauſes than they have with the Pope's bulls or the Emperor's decretal orders.

Were his Majeſty, "WHO HOLDS FORTH TO US ALL THE BLESSINGS OF THE BRITISH CONSTITUTION," but to be informed how cruelly theſe bleſſings are intercepted, his Royal mind would be filled with exquiſite ſorrow and indignation. Heavens! what would this parental monarch, the beſt of all fathers, ſay, when he would but hear of the condition of his orphans and poor, owing to his Governor's ſquabbling with his Aſſembly about an attachment clauſe in a law? But what convulſions muſt rend his frame, when fully apprized that theſe laws have nothing to do with attachments! This I leave the reader to figure in imagination; I'm ſure I cannot deſcribe it. And now for a remedy: I hope ſuch an infamous ſpecies of quackery in politics in North-Carolina does not prevail as to ſuppoſe order may ſpring out of wilful confuſion; and therefore that his Excellency will lend a healing hand towards the cure of the many ſores the province is afflicted with, and that whatever objection he may have to exceptionable laws, ſtill he will give the people UNEXCEPTIONABLE ONES; and of that nature and tendency are every one I have taken occaſion to mention.

A FREEHOLDER.

ACADEMY.

UNDER the Patronage of several respectable Gentlemen of this Province: An ACADEMY for the Instruction of both Sexes, is opened in Queen-Street, by two Gentlemen who flatter themselves that they will be found qualified for the Undertaking. One of them is a Clergyman, and was engaged for some Time in teaching Youth in Great-Britain; the other completed his Studies at the University of Paris, where he rendered himself Master of the French Language, and was lately employed as a private Tutor in the Province of New-York.

They beg Leave to take this Method of laying before the Public the different Branches of Education they undertake to teach, viz. the Principles of English Grammar, Latin, Greek, French, Writing, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Geography, Algebra, Geometry, &c. and different Branches of Natural Philosophy.

They intend, as soon as possible, to procure some Apparatus for the Experimental Part of Philosophy.

As they are convinced that the Gentlemen of this Province, who have distinguished themselves by their public-spirited Liberality to the Northern Academies, will be still more ready to cherish any infant Seminary of Learning in their own Country; so they, on their Parts, will use their utmost Endeavours, by Attention and Assiduity, to forward their Pupils in their different Studies; fully sensible that their Success will depend on that alone, and from that alone they expect to derive that Share of Approbation to which the Public may, in future, think them entitled.

The frequent Visits of Parents and Gentlemen of Learning will always be agreeable, by which Means they may have an Opportunity of examining the Youth, and may satisfy themselves with Regard to the Progress they make in their Studies.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, MAY 30, 1773.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by his Order in Council, dated at St. JAMES's, the 7th Day of April, 1773, has been pleased to signify, That, having taken into his Royal Consideration, the Justice and Expediency of subjecting the Grantees of LANDS in his Colonies and Plantations in America, to other Conditions than those at present prescribed in the Instructions given to His Majesty's Governors in the said Plantations; and that the Authority for granting Lands, contained in the Commissions and Instructions given to his Majesty's said Governors, should be further regulated and restrained: And, that he had therefore been pleased to order, That the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, should take into their immediate Consideration, the Powers and Authorities contained in the said Commissions and Instructions, and represent unto His Majesty such Alterations as they shall think fit and necessary to be made therein. And, that it was his Royal Will and Pleasure, that in the mean Time, and until His Majesty's further Pleasure should be signified, that no Warrant of Survey for Land should issue, nor any Patent for Land pass, unless to such Commission or Non-Commission Officers or Soldiers, as are intitled to Grants for Lands, by Virtue of His Majesty's Royal Proclamation, dated the 7th Day of October, 1763: I do hereby give Public Notice thereof, to all whom it may concern.

By Order of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor,
JAMES SIMPSON.

PUBLIC TREASURY, March 4th, 1774.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

THE Public Treasurers would gladly give the Public such a Description of the Counterfeit Bills now passing in this Province, as might effectually guard every Person from being imposed upon: But there are such a Variety of them (every Emission since the Year 1748 being counterfeited, except the Tax Certificates for the Indian Trade) that it is impossible. The only two distinguishing Marks that run through the most of them are these, viz. The Figures in the numbering are very bad, and the Names of the Signers are impressed by the Plate, instead of being wrote with a Pen.
